Dear Ham:

Many thanks for your letter of January 12 enclosing the copy of Senator Lehman's letter of January 8 containing his complimentary comments on the January 1955 issue of Foreign Affairs.

I must say that I too agree with Senator Lehman that this particular issue was a most interesting one.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles,

Dear Allen:

I don't usually pass around either complimentary or abusive letters about FOREIGN AFFAIRS, but I think members of the Editorial Advisory Board may like to see this nice letter that came today from Senator Lehman.

Yours sincerely,

Ham

My dear Mr. Armstrong:

All the issues of Foreign Affairs in recent years have been very interesting. I think, however, that the January 1955 issue is one of the very best. I have not read all the articles as yet, since I have been pretty busy. Those which I have read, however, are excellent and very useful indeed. Heartiest congratulations.

With kindest personal regards, in which Mrs. Lehman joins me, I am

Yours very sincerely,

HERBERT H. LEHMAN
